

Batson, Carrie M.

Death Aug. 24, 1998

Carrie M. Batson 2.4.

Funeral: 10 a.m. Wednesday at First Baptist Church of Wiggins.

8-25-1998
□ WIGGINS — Mrs. Carrie M. Batson's life began October 19, 1903. She went to be with her heavenly family on Monday, August 24, 1998. She was 94. Family and friends will celebrate her life with a visitation at Moore Funeral Home in Wiggins from 6 to 9 p.m., Tuesday, August 25, 1998, and a funeral on Wednesday, August 26, 1998, at 10 a.m. at First Baptist Church in Wiggins. Burial will be in Thomas Price Cemetery in Wiggins.

Carrie was a servant to others as a Sunday School Teacher, Church Flower Committee member and National 4-H Leader, for which she won several awards through Home Demonstration Club and Farm Bureau activities.

For many years, she assisted in happy and sad occasions with her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Hollis Hale Batson; and two sons, J.D. Batson and Harmon Batson.

Survivors include a son, Archie Miller Batson and his wife, Sue

Batson of Wiggins; daughters, Mary Elain Wesson and husband, Harold Wesson of Wiggins, Nella Ruth Rogers of Perkinson, Alice Patterson of Long Beach, Earnestine Blackwood and husband, Charles Blackwood of Gulfport and Jane Jackson of North Little Rock, Arkansas; a daughter-in-law, Ethel Thatcher Batson (Mrs. J.D. Batson) of Poplarville; grandchildren, Camille Wesson Lott, Anita Wesson Bynum, Bill Wesson, Debra Wesson Jackson, David C. Rogers, Lowell N. Rogers, Eric N. Rogers, Carol Rogers Eure, Walter J. Patterson, Terry Patterson Edwards, Charles A. Blackwood Jr., Ernest Hale Blackwood, Cindy Batson Broom, Angie Batson Kirtley, Laurie Batson Rhodes, Lisa Batson Brown, Martin Jackson, Janet Jackson Dixon, Kim Batson Dukes, M. Shep Batson and Brandy Batson Herrin; 37 great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family prefers memorials to the First Baptist Church of Wiggins in lieu of flowers.

BATSON, CARRIE M